ORDER REGARDING MOTION OF THE
REGENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
FOR A LIMITED MODIFICATION OF THE AUTOMATIC STAY

Upon consideration of the motion, dated February 25, 2002, filed on behalf of the Regents of California as lead Plaintiff in the Newby Action for a limited modification of the automatic stay as to Debtor Enron Corporation (“Enron” or “the Company” or “the Debtor”) to obtain copies of (i) all documents and materials Enron produced in connection with any inquiries relating to the Company by or on behalf of any government committee, the Executive Branch of the U.S. government, including but not limited to the U.S. Department of Justice and The Securities and Exchange Commission and (ii) all transcripts of witness interviews or depositions in connection with said inquiries or investigation; the response of the Debtors; dated April 3, 2002; and oral argument held on April 4, 2002, it is hereby and upon the entire record herein; and good and sufficient cause appearing;

ORDERED:

The automatic stay is hereby continued, except as provided below.

Consistent with any Order by Judge Harmon in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas in Newby v. Enron Corp., Case No. H-1-3624, including an Order determining that the stay of discovery established by Section 21D(b)(3)(B) of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, 15 U.S.C. §78 u-4(b)(3)(B) should be lifted; Enron will produce, subject to attorney client privilege or work product protection and following a reasonable period for review: (1) a copy of all documents and materials Enron produced in connection with any inquiries or investigations into the Company's business affairs that were provided (a) to any committee of the Legislative branch of the United States Government, or (b) in response to any subpoena or written request of the Executive branch of the United States Government, including, but not limited to, the United States Department of Justice and the Securities and Exchange Commission; and (2) copies of all transcripts of witness interviews taken or conducted by (a) the foregoing governmental bodies or (b) Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering in connection with its representation of the Special Investigative Committee of the Board of Directors of Enron Corp. or depositions in Enron's possession, custody, or control given or taken in connection with said inquiries or investigations.
